UPI: UC Lead Study Shows Benefits of Chelation for Lead-exposed Children

A story that ran on the United Press International wire service details a study led by UC's Amit Bhattacharya that shows positive results in muscle function for lead-exposed children who undergo chelation therapy.